

*"You know,
this is a tough road we've chosen and it will take all of our courage and solidarity to travel it."*

Edwin D. Hill
IBEW President

Count Me In

I want to take on the tough fights that face working people today by joining with other union members and retirees throughout the labor movement.

Together, we will work to organize all workers; promote reasonable methods of work; secure adequate pay for our work; cultivate feelings of friendship among those in our industry; help each other in sickness or distress; and by all legal and proper means, elevate the moral, intellectual and social conditions of the workers in our community.

Count Me In

- I am ready to be an activist and pledge my participation in a minimum of two of the activities listed below:
- I will donate my time and talents to my local union when asked.
- I will write to my congressional representatives, state legislators, public service commissioners and Governor as required.
- I will educate 10 or more of my brothers and sisters on the importance of organizing.
- I will promote solidarity within my local union.
- I will actively seek out organizing leads on behalf of my local union.
- I will get an E-mail list for my work locations.
- I will contribute to the IBEW political fund and encourage others to do so as well.
- I will attend my unit meetings and encourage my brothers and sisters to do the same.

In Solidarity, I so pledge:
